DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 24th day of May, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared only by her general appearance and refusal to plead further.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had acknowledged receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint and had entered her general appearance, and had refused to answer, or plead, to the said action, and that after twenty days the default of the defendant had been entered. It also appeared to the Court that the defendant, by her own acknowledgment, had not been, and is not at the present time, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the said defendant has shown no reason why the plaintiff should not be granted a divorce, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as folbows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Harry W. Barnes, and the defendant, Dessie E. Barnes, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant, and the parties each restored to the status of single persons.

MARGUERITE BARRIETUA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOE BARRIETUA,

Defendant.

JUDGMENT

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 5th day of June, 1947, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law, of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, Joe Barrietua, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action, and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true. Whereupon it is ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant as prayed in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Breshears, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

II

That the care and custody of Walter Joe Barrietua and Florence Gail Barrietua, minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, during the minority of said children, reserving to the defendant herein the right to visit the said children in the custody of the plaintiff at reasonable times and places.

III

That the defendant, Joe Barrietua, shall pay to the plaintiff, Marguerite Barrietua, the sum of $25.00 per month for the support, maintenance, and education, of Walter Joe Barrietua, and the sum of $25.00 per month for the support, maintenance, and education of Florence Gail Barrietua, minor children of plaintiff and defendant; said monthly payments to begin on the date of this decree and to continue on or before the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until the death, or marriage of said children, or until they attain the age of majority, or until such time as plaintiff's care and custody of said children terminates, which ever event shall first occur.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 31st day of May, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared not, neither in person, nor by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had entered her general appearance by waiving service of summons and refusing to plead further, that more than twenty days had elapsed since the acknowledgment of service, that no further time had been given the defendant within which to answer or plead to the complaint, and that the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of the defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard on the 17th day of May, 1947, before the Court without a jury, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Edward G. Rosenheim, and the Defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney; and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly made, and due process by due service was had upon the Defendant; and the default of the Defendant having been duly and regularly entered because of his failure to plead to the Plaintiff's complaint, the time within which the Defendant must file an answer having expired:

The Plaintiff introduced evidence in proof of the allegations of her complaint and in corroboration thereof, the Court does find that all of the allegations in the Plaintiff's complaint are true and the Court further finds:

That Plaintiff has resided in Ada County, in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action; that the Plaintiff and Defendant had intermarried at Bonners Ferry, Idaho on or about the 13th day of March, 1940 and have been married ever since; that no children were born as the issue of said marriage;

That the Defendant without any fault on the part of the Plaintiff has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward her of a mental type; that his failure to fully take the responsibilities of a married man, and his indifference toward the health and welfare of the Plaintiff has for a period of several years caused her grievous mental anguish; and that when on or about September 15th, 1946, the Plaintiff was advised by three competent practicing physicians at Sandpoint and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, that she should remove to Boise, Idaho, because of its dryer climate which would have a tendency to remedy and improve her physical condition, that although the Defendant was fully acquainted with these facts, he refused absolutely to accompany the Plaintiff and as a result she was forced to leave him and did so leave him in January, 1947, and she now resides and is a citizen of Boise, Ada County, Idaho; the Court finds that it is a matter of law that in view of the circumstances herein and the evidence adduced that although the Plaintiff left the Defendant to come to Boise, this was an abandonment and desertion by the Defendant of the Plaintiff;

WHEREFORE, The Court being fully advised in the premises and in law

ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES:

(1) That Lorraine Norris Crouch, the Plaintiff aforesaid, be and she is hereby granted a divorce from Ralph Wilson Crouch, the Defendant above named; that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them be and is forever dissolved, and set aside, and that the said parties are relieved from any further obligation under said marriage, and they are restored to the status of unmarried persons.

(2) That there was no community property of the marital relationship but that a lot and house hereinafter described, at Sandpoint, County of Bonner, State of Idaho, was and is the sole and separate estate of the Plaintiff having been purchased by her with her own funds and that said property is hereby awarded to and is declared to be the sole and separate property of the Plaintiff Lorraine Norris Crouch, to-wit:

Lots Seven (7), Eight (8), and Nine (9), of Block One (1), West End Addition to

On proper showing that service of Summons had been made on the defendant according to law, and time for answer having expired, the default of said defendant was duly entered, whereupon testimony was introduced on behalf of plaintiff, and no testimony was offered on behalf of defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts, does hereby find as follows:

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the I4th day of June, I947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in the above-entitled cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been, in Military Service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant. NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 24th day of May, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared only by her general appearance and refusal to plead further.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had acknowledged receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint and had entered her general appearance, and had refused to answer, or plead, to the said action, and that after twenty days the default of the defendant had been entered. It also appeared to the Court that the defendant, by her own acknowledgment, had not been, and is not at the present time, in any branch of the military service of the United States of American as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Ellis B. Wood, and the Defendant, Jacqueline Wood, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant, and the parties each restored to the status of single persons.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 29 day of April, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of the defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objection, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government or in any Department of Public Health, that the making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises further finds that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 13th day of May, 1947, the deposition of the plaintiff was introduced in evidence, and plaintiff appeared by counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, of Pocatello, Idaho, the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel;

And it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly served with a copy of the complaint and summons in Houston, Texas, on the 29th day of November, 1946, and thereafter appeared in said action through attorneys Zener and Peterson of Pocatello, and filed a Demurrer to said complaint, and said Demurrer having been withdrawn and the defendant having refused to plead further to said action, and that a default has been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled court according to law;

DECREE AND JUDGMENT.

This action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 13th day of May, 1947, at 11 o'clock a.m. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black and Black; defendant did not appear in person or by attorney.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an

BARBARA CHENEY WATKINS,)

vs) DECREE OF DIVORCE
HARRY A. WATKINS,) Defendant.)

This cause came regularly on for trial before the Hon. L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above-entitled Court, on the 28th day of April, 1947, in the courtroom at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho. Merrill & Merrill, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff. Bistline and Bistline, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the defendant. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had accepted service of summons in writing and made and filed his personal and voluntary appearance in this action and submitted to the full jurisdiction of the Court, and thereafter, through his counsel, filed a demurrer to the plaintiff's complaint, which demurrer was over overruled and said defendant declined to plead further and stipulated in writing that the trial of said cause proceed forthwith. Evidence was thereupon introduced in support of the plaintiff's complaint, free from all exceptions as to its competency, relevancy, and admissibility, from which evidence it appears that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief therein sought and in the manner hereinafter adjudged. Written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were expressly waived in writing. The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises, NOW, THEREFORE:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE that a divorce be and the same is hereby granted the plaintiff, Barbara Cheney Watkins, and that the marriage existing between the plaintiff, Barbara Cheney Watkins, and the defendant, Harry A. Watkins, contracted in Manchester, Connecticut, on May 11, 1929, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught and the parties thereto are freed from all obligations thereof and each of them is restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that all matters concerning property and the support of the plaintiff and the care, custody, control, support, maintenance, and education of Barbara Cheney Watkins, Caroline Belle Watkins, and Mary Burges Watkins, the minor children, are adjudged, decreed, and settled in accordance with the terms, conditions and provisions of the agreement in writing, made and entered into by the plaintiff and defendant on March 7, 1947, a copy of which is now in evidence as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" and which hereby is expressly referred to and made part hereof; that said agreement in all respects hereby is approved and is incorporated in this judgment or decree, but the agreement shall survive this judgment or decree and shall not be merged therein.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day the plaintiff appeared with her attorneys Whitla & Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been duly and regularly made upon the defendant by the publication thereof as provided by the laws of the State of Idaho and the orders of this court, and due proof thereof has been made and filed herein. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein and the defendant having failed to appear or file any answer whatsoever the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or any military service whatsoever as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter and after due proof of service and said affidavit were filed the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this court.

The court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than three years immediately preceeding the commencement of this action, and now is such resident, and that the defendant has been guilty of willful neglect and non-support of the plaintiff for a period of more than five years, and that the plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart for more than five years without co-habitation, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason of all of said facts the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce against the defendant.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have one daughter, Sandra Lyn Essrig, now about seven years of age who has always resided with the plaintiff and now is residing with her and has been raised and provided for by the plaintiff and that she is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of the daughter, but that the defendant is not such fit and proper person. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been expressly waived herein;-

On motion of Whitla & Knudson, attorneys for the plaintiff it is by the court ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Erma Karolyn Essrig and Simon Sidney Essrig be and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved, and set aside, and the plaintiff is granted a decree of absolute divorce on the grounds of willful neglect, non-support, extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart for more than five years without co-habitation.

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 21st day of May, 1947, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Leave of the court having first been granted, this matter came on to be heard before the court at Weiser, Idaho, where the plaintiff appeared in person, and by her attorney C. H. Higer. Thereupon the plaintiff filed in the court her Military Service Affidavit to the effect that the defendant was not in the military Service of the United States of America; and thereupon the Court entered the defendants default for failure to answer and plead to said complaint within the time allowed by law for such appearance.

Thereupon the Court swore the plaintiff and her corroborating witness, Francis P. Wander, and received their sworn testimony, and from this testimony the Court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on the 1st day of May, 1942 at Emmett, Idaho. The court further finds that two children were born issue of said marriage, said children being:

Ann Beatrice Greer, age 3 years,
Kathleen Mary Greer, age 4 months

both of whom are in the care, custody, and control of the plaintiff herein. The court further finds that the plaintiff Beatrice E. Greer is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant; and the Court further finds that the defendant has inflicted extreme cruelty on the plaintiff as alleged in said complaint, and from the above finding of facts the court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony here-

BEATRICE HERRICK, Plaintiff, vs. ARCHIE HERRICK, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter having come regularly on for hearing this day the plaintiff appeared with her attorneys Whitla & Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and personal service of the Summons and Complaint was made upon the defendant in Kootenai County, Idaho and proof thereof has been filed herein; that the defendant has entered herein his acknowledgment of service and consented that the case could be heard without further notice to him.

The Court further finds that an affidavit in due form has been duly filed herein showing that the defendant is not in the Military Service of the United State as provided by the act of Congress and that after the filing of said affidavit the default of said defendant was duly entered in the premises.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Beatrice Herrick and the defendant Archie Herrick be and the same hereby are vacated, anulled, and set aside and the said plaintiff be and she hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

Savings Bonds and one $50.00 War Savings Bond either standing in the joint names of the parties or in the name of the plaintiff, and that the defendant should pay $100.00 attorneys' fees and $17.50 costs. That the defendant should be and he hereby is awarded as his sole and separate property the following real estate, to-wit:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

1. The party of the first part shall have the care, custody, and control of said minor children, Carroll Walker and Karen Walker, until said children become of legal age. During the time said children are in the care, custody, and control of the party of the first part, the party of the second part shall have the right to visit the children at all reasonable times and to have either or both of said children with him and under his immediate supervision during one-half of the period of school vacation times, that is to say, from four to six weeks during the summer school vacation after 1947.

2. The party of the second part shall pay to the party of the first part Three Hundred and Fifty ($350.00) Dollars, cash, and One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per month on the 1st day of each and every month for the support of said children until the youngest child becomes of majority or marries or otherwise is self-supporting. Upon the attaining of such state, the said party of the second part's obligation with respect to said monthly payments will cease and terminate. In the event, however, that the youngest child dies before the older child attains his majority, said monthly payments shall continue until he reaches such majority. Said payments of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per month, however, shall be made by the party of the second part to the party of the first part on the 1st day of every month hereafter during the said time, notwithstanding said children or either of them may be visiting the party of the second part.

3. The party of the first part shall have as her sole and separate property all household effects formerly belonging to the parties now situated in the Philippine Islands, also the diamond ring purchased during the marriage of said parties now in possession of the party of the first part.

4. The party of the second part shall have as his sole and separate property, the personal property now in his possession and shall have damage claims arising from the loss of his dental offices and equipment in the Philippine Islands.

5. The balance recouped as property or damage claims on account of loss of securities or other property owned as community property by the parties hereto shall be divided equally between them. Such division to be made upon the recovery of the securities, properties, or realization of money or other things of value from war damage claims. Either party hereto is hereby authorized to make and establish such claims for securities, properties, or damages provided he or she shall keep the other strictly advised as to the progress of any settlements, negotiations or matters in connection therewith, and in the event that it becomes necessary for either of the parties hereto go to the Philippine Islands on account of such securities, property or damage claims, the expenses of such trip and negotiations, strictly on account of such claims, shall be deducted in full from the amount recovered and the balance only divided.

Neither party shall be liable for any debt, contract, or other obligation hereafter incurred by the other party.

Second party at his sole cost shall call for and return Karen Walker for the above-mentioned vacation visits personally or by traveling companion acceptable to first party.

Each of the parties hereto agrees to furnish to the other, or any agent jointly employed, all information in his or her possession and to execute any instrument reasonably necessary in recouping said property or war damage claims.

That it is expressly understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that this agreement shall constitute a full and complete settlement of all the property rights of the parties hereto, whether arising out of said marriage relation, or otherwise, and that neither of the parties hereto shall have any claim upon the other for support, maintenance, alimony, attorney's fees, costs or any other obligation whatsoever, except as herein provided; and neither shall have any claim on the property of the other, either during life or after death, and the respective parties hereto do each hereby relinquish and expressly waive their right of inheritance in the estate of the other, or to share in the distribution of his or her estate in the event of death, or to succeed by inheritance to property of his or her estate, should he or she die intestate. It is hereby agreed that any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date of this agreement shall be the individual and separate property of the party acquiring said property.

That the second party does not warrant as to the existence of any property mentioned in paragraph 3 hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties have hereto set their hands and subscribed their names and executed these presents in triplicate the day and year first above written.

ORDER AMENDING DECREE

No. 3070

The motion of the plaintiff, Beulah Opal Gage, to modify and amend the Decree of Divorce entered in the above entitled court and cause on the 21st day of May, 1947, so as to provide that the care, custody and control of the three minor children of the plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the plaintiff and that said decree be further amended by deleting from said decree that portion of Paragraph 4 which awarded to the defendant, Arthur M. Gage, the custody of said minor children from June 15th to August 15th of each year, came regularly on to be heard, pursuant to Order to Show Cause, in open Court at Salmon, Lemhi County, Idaho, on the 22nd day of September, 1948; the plaintiff and defendant appeared individually and by their respective attorneys, Fred H. Snook and A. A. Merrill and entered into a stipulation whereby and by the terms whereof the original decree of divorce in this matter should be modified so that the plaintiff, Beulah Opal Gage, would be awarded the care, custody and control of the two minor girls, Rena Darlene Gage and Wanetta Ray Gage, and the defendant, Arthur M. Gage, be awarded the care, custody and control of Donald Lee Gage, the minor son of said parties, and that in all other respects the original decree should stand as entered. It appeared to the Court that said decree had been regularly entered herein after the defendant had been properly and personally served with summons within the State of Idaho in form and manner provided by law.

NOW THEREFORE, the Court being duly advised in the law and the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the Decree of Divorce entered in the above entitled court and cause on the 21st day of May, 1947, shall be and the same is hereby amended and modified as follows:

That in lieu of the provisions in said decree relating to the care, custody and control of the minor children Rena Darlene Gage, Wanetta Ray Gage and Donald Lee Gage of said plaintiff and defendant, said decree as amended shall read as follows:

> "That the care, custody and control of the two minor daughters, namely, Rena Darlene Gage and Wanetta Ray Gage of said plaintiff and defendant shall be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Beulah Opal Gage, with the right reserved to the defendant to visit said children at reasonable and proper times; and,
> It is further ordered that the care, custody and control of the minor son, Donald Lee Gage, of plaintiff and defendant shall be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, Arthur M. Gage, with the right reserved to the plaintiff to see and visit said children at reasonable and proper times; and,
> It is further ordered that the defendant, Arthur M. Gage, shall pay to the plaintiff, Beulah Opal Gage, the sum of $40.00 per month for the support of the said minor children, Rena Darlene Gage and Wanetta Ray Gage."

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That said decree of divorce entered May 21, 1947, shall in all other respects stand as originally entered.

And the plaintiff having testified in support of the allegations of his said complaint and his said testimony as to the residence within the State of Idaho of the plaintiff having been duly corroborated by the testimony of his witness; and the court having found that the plaintiff for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and having found that the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried on the 4th day of September, 1934, and ever since said date have been husband and wife; that one child was born issue of said marriage, namely, Wanda Juanita, age 11 years, and that said child is now in the custody of the defendant without the jurisdiction of this court; that the Duffin, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him. Thereupon it appeared to the Court that the defendant duly and regularly served with process herein on the 9th day of June, 1947, and had signed a written waiver of the time to appear and answer the complaint on file herein and had refused to plead further and consented to the entry of a default judgment against him forthwith and that the plaintiff be forthwith permitted to submit her evidence to substantiate the allegations of her complaint. That an affidavit in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been filed herein on behalf of the plaintiff from which it appeared that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff in the manner proved by law, or otherwise, having been duly entered herein in the manner provided by law by the Clerk of this Court. Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested. The Court being fully advised in the premises, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that judgment be entered for the plaintiff in accordance therewith.

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and findings aforesaid, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Amende, be, and she is hereby, forever divorced from the said defendant, Robert Elmore Amende, and the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

Second: That the property settlement between the parties to this action, a copy of which is hereunto attached and made a part of this decree as if fully set forth herein, be, and the same is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved; that said property settlement is a fair and just in its terms and conditions and that each of the parties thereto has had legal advise as to their rights and interests before said agreement was signed.

Third: That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody, and control of Jeri Ann Amende, who was born on the 30th day of August, 1942, and Jack Walter Amende, who was born the 23rd day of January, 1947, minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

Fourth: That the defendant Robert Elmore Amende, prior to the hearing of this cause has made ample support for plaintiff and said minor children to the date hereof, and that fifty dollars ($50.00) per month for said minor children is a reasonable amount to be allowed for the support and maintenance of said children considering the ability of the said defendant to pay.

DATED this 12th day of June, 1947.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of May, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Daniel Gilbert, was duly and regularly served with process herein by service made upon him in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit, showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either Army or Navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and this Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on the 3rd day of March, 1947, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner as alleged in said complaint and caused her great mental worry, humiliation and shame, as such acts on the part of the defendant were calculated to do; that none of the acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff were caused by any act or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that there was born as the issue of said marriage two children, a son who is now married and has a home of his own, and a daughter, Maxine Gilbert, who will be fifteen years of age on June 15th, 1947 and who is now with the defendant and being cared for by him, and that plaintiff does not ask any order concerning the custody of said daughter; that the property rights of the parties hereto have been taken care of in full and there is now nothing before the Court concerning such rights.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Ruth Gilbert, and the defendant, Daniel Gilbert, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

DECREE

Filed and entered June 16, 1947

Clerk

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 16th day of June, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Lyle E. Lingel, was duly and regularly served with process herein by service made upon him in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit, showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either Army or Navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and this Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on the 2nd day of May, 1947, at which time they ceased to live together and ever since have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner as alleged in said complaint and caused her great physical and mental suffering, humiliation and shame, as such acts on the part of the defendant were calculated to do; that none of the acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff were caused by any act or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that there were born as the issue of said marriage two children, to-wit: Lyle Ricky Lingel, a son, born August 17, 1943, and Sharla Marie Lingel, a daughter, born June 2, 1945, both of whom are now living with and under the custody and control of plaintiff and that plaintiff should be awarded the care, custody and control of said minor children and that the defendant should pay to plaintiff for the care and support of each of said children the sum of $25.00, or the total of $50.00,per month, such payments to continue during the minority of each of said children or until either thereof shall marry, if either marries before reaching lawful age; The Court also finds that a property settlement has been made between the plaintiff and the defendant which was and is agreeable to each of said parties, and the Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the care, custody and control of the minor children of said marriage should be awarded to plaintiff; that the defendant should pay to the plaintiff for the care and support of each of said children the sum of $25.00, or the total of $50.00, per month, such payments to continue during the minority of each of said children or until either thereof shall marry, if either marries before reaching lawful age; also that the property settlement between the parties hereto should be confirmed.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Lucie C. Lingel, and the defendant, Lyle E. Lingel, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved,on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, given the care, custody, control and education of Lyle Ricky Lingel and Sharla Marie Lingel, minor children of the parties hereto, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit such children at all reasonable times or places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the care and support of each of said minor children the sum of $25.00 per month, beginning on the 16th day of June , 1947, and that such payments continue until each respective child shall reach the age of majority, or until either of said children shall marry, if either married before reaching lawful age.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED , that the property settlement made and entered into between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby is, confirmed.

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the Court on the 16th day of June, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Daniel R. Myers, was duly and regularly served with process herein by service made upon him personally within the County of Payette, State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and this Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff has been a resident of the County of Payette, State of Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action and that such residence has been an actual bona fide residence; that said plaintiff and defendant went through a marriage ceremony with each other as alleged in such complaint but that such ceremony was without legal effect, the plaintiff being at that time the lawful wife of another man then living, which fact the plaintiff determined subsequent to the time of such ceremony; that the said pretended marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant had no lawful or legal effect and was a nullity.

The Court therefore finds that said pretended marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant herein should be herein declared to be wholly void and null from the date hereof.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the said marriage between the plaintiff/and the defendant be, and the same is hereby, declared to be wholly null and void from the date of this judgment, and the said parties are and each of them is freed from the obligations thereof.

Mr. Robert E. Brown appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court, that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said defendant was served with said process in San Antonio, Texas, and acknowledged service and waived his rights under the Soldiers'and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940; and the defendant having not appeared or answered said Amended Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Amended Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

vs. DECREE.

Leonard W. Ryder, Defendant.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her counsel, Mr. H. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 14th day of June, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court, by affidavit of publication on file herein, that pursuant to order made and entered April 18th, 1947, service of summons was had on the defendant by publication for a period of five consecutive weeks, between April 24th, 1947, and May 22nd, 1947; it being also shown to the Court, by affidavit of mailing on file herein, that a copy of the summons and amended complaint in this action was mailed to the last known address of the defendant, viz., No. 14 Camden Square, Camden Town, Londong, England; it being further known to the Court that more than twenty days after the completion of service by publication, to-wit, on the 12th day of June, 1947, the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead was entered by the Clerk of our Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and it hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to the length of plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married in London, England, on the 24th day of December, 1943, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that there are no children born of said marriage, and no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that after their marriage, defendant habitually quarreled with and found fault with plaintiff, and falsely accused him of improper relations with other women; that plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart since July, 1945.

From the evidence thus adduced, the Court concludes that defendant's treatment of plaintiff inflicted upon him extreme mental cruelty; that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

AMY HARRIS SNIFFEN, Defendant.

JUDGMENT.

The above entitled cause coming on this day to be heard by the Court, the Plaintiff appearing in person, and Chas. E. Harris appearing as Counsel for the Plaintiff, and the Defendant not appearing either in person or by Counsel, and the Court having found from the record and affidavits in the files of said Cause, that the Defendant in said action, had been duly served with process in said cause, in the manner provided by law, and having found further that the Defendant had not Demurred, answered, or otherwise plead in said action, in the time provided by law or at all, and that the Default of said Defendant had duly entered, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence submitted by the Plaintiff in support of the allegations set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint, and from which evidence the Court finds:

1. That Plaintiff has resided in the County of Bear Lake and State of Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately prior to filing the Complaint in this action.

2. That Plaintiff and Defendant intermarried at Monticello, New York, on November 26, 1921, and ever since and still are husband and wife.

3. That only one child, a son now 24 years of age, has been born to this marriage.

5. That the material allegations of said Plaintiff's complaint have been proven by the evidence submitted herein.

From said findings the Court concludes as a matter of law:
That the acts of said Defendant as shown by the evidence submitted support and constitute desertion on the part of the Defendant from Plaintiff for more than four years last past.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that Judgment be entered for the Plaintiff as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court, sitting without a jury, in chambers, in the County Court House, at Boise, in the county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 8th day of July ,1947, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A. M., the Honorable Chas. F. Koelsch presiding. Said cause came on at such time and place for hearing pursuant to stipulation of the parties, through their attorneys, and by order of the Court.

The plaintiff appeared in person, and by her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant appeared only by his attorney, Jess B. Hawley Jr., who was appointed for defendant by the Court, and the parties announced themselves ready for trial.

The plaintiff testified in her own behalf in support of the allegations of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of two witnesses, Mrs. Lucy Mitchell and Mrs. Pauline Bolton.

Thereupon, the defendant, through his attorney, declined to submit evidence in support of his general denial, or at all, and the defendant having rested, the cause having been submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court having made findings of fact and conclusions of law in writing that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff, and that by reason of such extreme cruelty the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved and divorced from the defendant.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to have the care, custody and control of Linda Carol Goforth and Laray Catherine Goforth, the minor children of the plaintiff and the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED By the Court, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and that the plaintiff, Vera Goforth, be and she is hereby, forever divorced from the defendant, Landon C. Goforth;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff, Vera Goforth, shall have the care, custody and control of Linda Carol Goforth and Laray Catherine Goforth, the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant.

EVERETT MCCUBIN, DEFENDANT)

The above entitled case came on for hearing before the undersigned Judge sitting in chambers at Burley, Idaho.

Esota M. McCubin being present in Court represented by Henry M. Hall,Esquire, an attorney of this Court, the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney.

It further appearing to the Court that due, legal and sufficient service of the summons in this action, by publication in a legal newspaper published and printed in Jerome County, Idaho, said summons was published on an order which was based upon an affidavit made by the plaintiff to the effect that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Idaho, and could not be served personally within this State with process.

Now it appearing that the time has expired for the defendant to answer or demurrer to the plaintiffs complaint on file in this action , and that the defendant's default was duly entered by the Clerk of the above Court, and the said matter is now ready for hearing and determination by the Court.

Plaintiff and her witness were both duly sworn by the Court according to law, and thereupon the Court proceeded to hear the testimony, and from the evidence given the Court finds that all of the material allegations contained in the plaintiffs complaint were proven by evidence free and clear of any and all legal objections; that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately prior to the commencement of this action , and that such fact was duly corroborated by testimony of a competent witness; that the defenda nt has waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, by reason of his non-appearance , therefore the Court is of the opinion that the said plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant.

WHEREFORE;

It is the judgment of this Court that the marriage now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, and the same is herewith dissolved, and that each of the parties to the said marriage is hereby restored to the status of a single unmarried person, and that the plaintiff be restored to her former name of Esotta M. Yannone.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of Washington, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this Court as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named plaintiff, Louis Henry Weber, and the above named defendant, Getha Elizabeth Weber, be, and the same hereby are vs.

RUBY FERN RAYMER,

Defendant.

The above cause coming on to be heard before the Honorable Guy Stevens, District Judge, in Open Court at Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho, on the 24th day of June, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, McCall and Thatcher, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney; and it further appearing that the defendant, RUBY FERN RAYMER, was regularly served with process issued out of this court in the manner provided for by law and the rules and practice of this court, and the time for answering or pleading to said complaint on file in this cause having expired and no answer or other pleading having been filed and the default of said defendant, RUBY FERN RAYMER, having been entered according to law;

And the plaintiff having testified in support of the allegations of his said complaint and his said testimony as to the residence within the State of Idaho of the plaintiff having been duly corroborated by the testimony of his witness; and the court having found that the plaintiff for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and having found that the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried on the 18th day of May, 1934, and ever since said date have been husband and wife; that four children have been born as the issue of said marriage, to-wit: Marilyn Eola, daughter, age twelve years; Donald Vern, son, age nine years; Marion Belle, daughter, age five years; and Marvin LeRoy, son, age three years; that the parties have made a satisfactory settlement of all property rights, and conveyances thereof have been executed between the parties; and the court having further found that since said marriage, the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner, and in particular as follows:

That for more than one month last past the defendant has been receiving marked attentions from a certain married man living in the vicinity of the home of plaintiff and defendant; that on the 4th day of May, 1947, this said party came to the home of plaintiff and defendant; that after supper had been prepared and eaten the plaintiff and his brother performed the evening chores being gone approximately one hour. When they returned this said party and the defendant were lying upon the bed kissing each other and making violent love to each other; that on the evening of Saturday, the 10th day of May, 1947, defendant went with this party to a dance at Leadore and they did not return until approximately six o'clock on the following morning; that on the evening of the 11th day of May, 1947, the defendant left with this said party ostensibly to visit her mother who was seriously ill at her home at Emmett, Idaho; that they remained overnight at Idaho Falls, Idaho, and on the following morning the defendant went by bus to Emmett; that on her return trip from Emmett she met this party by appointment at Pocatello, Idaho, and went with him to Idaho Falls and stayed overnight; that he brought her home on the following day arriving at the home of plaintiff and defendant about four O'clock in the afternoon of that day; that defendant told plaintiff that she was in love with this pary and did not intend to live with plaintiff any longer; that such conduct on the part of the defendant has caused plaintiff great mental suffering and has utterly destroyed the legitimate objects of matrimony and has rendered further cohabitation with her intolerable;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of said minor children;

And an affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act having been filed, and the court having found to that effect; and the court having concluded that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of this court dissolving the contract of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant; and having directed that judgment be entered in accordance therewith, now therefore, by reason of the law and findings aforesaid and upon motion of F. A. McCall of counsel for plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the contract of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, DONALD F. RAYMER, and the defendant, RUBY FERN RAYMER, be dissolved and each of the parties be restored to the status of single person; and that the custody of said minor children, to-wit: Marilyn Eola, Donald Vern, Marion Belle, and Marvin LeRoy be awarded to the plaintiff.

ALTHA LARSON, Plaintiff, vs. OSBURN TOLMAN LARSON, Defendant.	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff before the Honorable T. Bailey Lee, Judge of said Court at chambers at Burley, Cassia County, Idaho on this 26th day of June, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and by H. A. Baker, her counsel. It appeared to the Judge that the defendant had been duly, regularly and personally served with summons in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho and that he had failed to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law or at all and that the clerk of said Court after the expiration of the time allowed for appearance and after it had been made to appear to him from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, had duly and regularly entered the default of said defendant.

Witnesses on the part of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision and it appearing that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevency and admissibility and that the plaintiff is manifestly entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant, to decree awarding to her as her separate property and estate the personal property alleged to be such and to the community property now in her possession, and to decree requiring the defendant to pay attorney's fees and costs.

WHEREFORE, By reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Altha Larson, and the defendant, Osburn Tolman Larson, be and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside and that each party thereto be and each of them is hereby released from all the obligations thereof and that the maiden name of the plaintiff, to-wit: Altha Garner, be and the same is hereby restored to her; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded as her separate property and estate the electric range and all other household furniture, equipment and supplies acquired by the parties hereto and now in the possession of the plaintiff and also all separate property of the plaintiff now in her possession and that the defendant be and he is hereby awarded the Chevrolet coupe automobile registered in his name and now in his possession; that by reason of the greater value of said automobile, the said defendant be and he is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff or to her attorney for his services rendered in this action the sum of $100.00.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendant her costs of suit taxed at $16.40.

Dated at chambers at Burley, Cassia County, Idaho this 26th day of June, 1947.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 26th day of June, 1947, before Honorable T. Bailey Lee, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by Lawrence H. Duffin, his attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for her. Thereupon it appeared to the Court that the said defendant was duly served with process herein and had signed a written waiver of the time to appear and answer the complaint of file herein and had refused to plead further and consented to the entry of a default judgment against her forthwith and the plaintiff be forthwith permitted to submit her evidence to substantiate the allegations of his complaint, and that no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed herein by or on behalf of the defendant. That an affidavit in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been filed herein on behalf of the plaintiff from which it appears that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, and that the default of the defendant for her failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff in the manner provided by law, or otherwise, having been duly entered herein in the manner provided by law by the Clerk of this Court. Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested. The Court being fully advised in the premises, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that judgment be entered for the plaintiff in accordance therewith.

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and findings aforesaid, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

First: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff, Chauncy William Platts and defendant, Rose Mary Platts, be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, canceled, set aside and held for naught, and the said plaintiff, Chauncy William Platts, be, and he is hereby, forever divorced from the said defendant, Rose Mary Platts, and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

Second: That defendant's name be restored to that by which she was known prior to said marriage, to-wit: Rose Mary Ruff.

This cause came on to be heard by the Court on the 21st day of July, 1947, plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney of record herein, and the defendant appearing by her counsel, Herman Welker, Esq., and the said defendant thereupon withdrew her demurrer to the complaint of the plaintiff and refused to plead further, thereupon application was made by the plaintiff for an order of default against the said defendant on account of her refusal to so plead further, whereupon it was by the Court ordered that the default of the defendant be entered and thereupon the default of the defendant was by the Clerk duly entered.

Whereupon the Court heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action and that such residence has been an actual bona fide residence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that said parties ceased to live together as husband and wife and have continued so to live separate and apart from each other as alleged in said complaint; that the defendant treated the plaintiff in the cruel manner as alleged, without cause on the part of the plaintiff, against his will and without his consent, all as alleged in said complaint; that the property settlement agreement entered into between said parties should be approved with the exception that the plaintiff should pay to the defendant for the support and maintenance of the minor child of the marriage of said parties the sum of $25.00 per month during its minority should such child live to the age of majority, or until said child shall marry if it marries before the attaining of lawful age; and that the care, custody and control of the child should be awarded to the defendant in accordance with the terms of said contract so entered into between said parties.

The Court therefore finds that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the agreement between said persons should be approved, excepting that the plaintiff should pay to the defendant for the support of the minor child of the marriage the sum of $25.00 per month during the minority of such child or until the marriage of such child should he marry before attaining lawful age; that the real property and premises described in the complaint herein should be decreed to plaintiff as his sole and separate property; that the custody and control of the minor child of the marriage of said parties should be awarded to the defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Homer B. Conkel, and the defendant, Cecile Beatrice Conkel, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage toward each other and are hereby returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor child of said marriage, to-wit: Jimmie Robert Conkel, but that the plaintiff shall have the right to visit such child at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the property settlement between said parties, except as modified by this Decree, be and the same hereby is approved, and that the plaintiff shall be and is the owner of the following described real property located in the City and County of Payette, State of Idaho, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all rights, claims, interests, community and otherwise, of the defendant therein or thereto, to-wit:

Lots 11 and 12 of Block 7 of Park Addition to the City of Payette, Idaho, according to the official plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the County Recorder of Payette County, Idaho, together with all irrigation rights appurtenant thereto or in anywise used in connection with the irrigation thereof and including any irrigation water stock used with said lands.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the personal property mentioned and described in said complaint as going to each individual person therein shall be and remain the sole and separate property of the one taking same thereunder.

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the Court on the 21st day of July, 1947, and it appearing that the defendant, Elmer L. Turner, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon him outside the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action and that such residence has been an actual bona fide residence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that said parties ceased to live together and have continued to live separate and apart as stated and alleged in said complaint; that the defendant, on the 22nd day of July, 1940, in the Circuit Court of the County of Baker, State of Oregon, was convicted of felony, to-wit: rape, and by said Court sentenced to confinement in the State prison of said State for the term of not more than twenty years, and in pursuance thereof the defendant was so confined in said prison and is now confined therein; that there were born as the issue of said marriage four children of whom three thereof are now minors and whose names and ages are as follows: William Turner, son, aged 14 years; Kathleen Turner, daughter, aged 12 years; and June Turner, daughter, aged 7 years; each of which said children are now with and being supported by the plaintiff, and the care, custody and control of each of said children should be awarded to the plaintiff herein; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the parties to this action.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between herself and the said defendant, on the grounds of the conviction of the defendant of a felony; that the plaintiff should be awarded the care, custody, and control of each of the said minor children of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Katy Turner, and the defendant, Elmer L. Turner, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of conviction of the defendant of a felony, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage toward each other.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody, and control of the minor children of said marriage, to-wit: William Turner, Kathleen Turner, and June Turner, and each of them, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children and each of them at reasonable times and places.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons and complaint as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in the above-entitled action, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for six months prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the said defendant has been
